

Biography

Sarah Louise Wall is a Bahamian born British mezzo-soprano and is a former member of the NBR New Zealand Opera Chorus. She is a first class honours graduate of the University of Manchester following three years of study at the Royal Northern College of Music.

Whilst in New Zealand Sarah regularly appeared on the concert platform and took lead roles for Opera Factory. She was heavily involved in education outreach work and in demand as a school singing teacher. She developed an excellent reputation as a practitioner committed to expanding singing activity in schools as a tool for personal growth and development.

Sarah is thrilled that her new role as Sing Up Cumbria coordinator for SoundWave enables her to share her passion for singing and education with a greater number of people than ever before and she is most grateful to Jilly for the opportunity to share with you today.
